Hey folks -

I just spoke with Julie DalSoglio about a potential visit by Shaun McGrath to Columbia Falls the morning of May 29th. She was interested in hearing any recommendations from the team regarding a visit. I wanted to pull the team together to discuss the issues anyone would have. Apparently, a site tour was an option that was discussed. I mentioned that it may be challenging for a site tour right now, but the team would discuss it nonetheless.

If folks aren't around on Friday, I see our collective calendars are free from 1:30-2:00 Thursday, which would be my backup plan. Let me know.

Thanks,
Rob
